If there is one thing that Tammany or its leaders do not like it is to be "boosed" or to be told to do something they do not want to do. It is suggested by Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, that the members of the organization who are delegates to the St. Louis convention, will obey the instructions given them by the New York state convention and vote for Judge Parker for president, but, he declares, that action will follow only after the convention has been "solemnly warned" that Judge Parker can not carry the state of New York against Roosevelt. From this one would imagine that while the Tammany men will vote for Judge Parker at the convention, that if he be nominated they will not vote for him at the general election, but will assist in his defeat. This has a semblance of party treason. In any event it is a curious manner of obeying instructions. If the Tammany delegates do not want to vote for Judge Parker, even after being instructed to do so, they could have resigned their credentials and the office and allowed some other democrats to go who are in sympathy with Judge Parker.

GOOD news come from Madison, Garrard and Rockcastle concerning Hon. Harvey Helm's race for Congress. Letters from prominent democrats in those counties state that he will carry them beyond doubt. Mr. Helm is making an active, but dignified canvass, and the prospects of his representing the grand old Eighth district in Congress grow brighter and better as the convention draws nearer. He is the logical candidate and there is every reason why he should have the nomination.

POLITICAL.

The headquarters of the National Republican Committee will be transferred this week from Washington to Chicago.

The split in republican ranks in West Virginia is growing wider and promises to end in a bolt by the Teter faction and the nomination of Dawson for Governor.

By a vote of 166 to 157, the Georgia democratic convention instructed its delegates to the National convention to vote for Parker.

The republicans, who are now in control of the Baltimore city government, will have a public improvement fund of $10,000,000 to spend.

The Hearst men were defeated in the Michigan Democratic convention and an unopposed delegation will go to St. Louis to vote as a unit.

Gov. Odell, of New York, is in Paris, and it is believed he will endeavor to induce Ambassador Porter to accept the Republican nomination for Governor of New York.

Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, has announced through personal friends his candidacy for the United States Senate to succeed the late Matthew Stanley Quay.

The statement of the public debt of the government for the month of May shows an increase of $56,447,576, due to the Panama canal and World's Fair loan payments, which is also shown in the excess of government expenditures over the receipts.

The Nebraska democratic convention at Omaha elected W. J. Bryan, C. J. Smyth, W. B. Thompson and Walter Phillips delegates-at large to the National convention. The delegates are to vote as a unit. A resolution pledging the Nebraska democracy to support the nominee was ruled out of order by the chairman.

The Picket in Moving Pictures.

Those who saw The Picket defeat his field in the Brooklyn Handicap will soon be able to follow him to the paddock and witness the cooling-out and rubbing down process there, for the moving picture man was on hand to get a view of this very interesting process, says a New York paper.

After the race The Picket was taken to the outside paddock, where the grass was green and soft and the sun shone brightly. Here he was surrounded by a multitude, who, before the race had eyes only for the stars among the Eastern starters. Carroll Reid was there, wearing a smile guaranteed not to come off for the remainder of the afternoon at least.

Came the moving picture artist with his machine, and with a gangway between two walls of humanity, the machine started grinding out the films that will reproduce the scene. The Picket, with the air of a monarch, was prancing around while the "swipes" were going over him with "rub rags." "Just turn his head a little this way and show him at his best," Reid said to the attendant. "This is a picture of a champion they are taking, and he must show to the best advantage."

Snap! went the picture machine, indicating that its work was done, and almost simultaneously a blanket was thrown over The Picket, and he was led away, followed by an admiring crowd.

"There he goes, the best horse in America," said Mr. Reid, as he turned to receive the congratulations of Earl Jungbluth, one of the owners of the horse. "They thought I was shooting too high with him, but that little horse made good."

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. J. M. Bruce will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning. Eld J. G. Livingston will preach at Holdam's Mill at 11 o'clock Sunday.

At the request of the Christian church at Hubble, Rev. J. W. Hagin will preach there at 3 o'clock on next Sunday afternoon.

Services as usual, at the Christian church Sunday morning. The minister's subject, "A Summons to Sleeping Zion." Services promptly at 10:45 and 7:45.

According to church statistics compiled in 1902, there were in Japan in that year 129,134 Christians, of whom 46,634 were Protestants, 55,824 Roman Catholics, and 26,680 Greek Catholics.

The Monticello Outlook says: "Rev. Donald McDonald, of Danville, Rev. Dr. Glaes, of Somerset, and probably Rev. J. M. Worrall, of Danville, will assist Rev. H. C. Ralney in the dedication exercises at the Presbyterian church, June 5th."

In the Christian church, the first Sunday in June is set apart as "Children's Day," the purpose being to develop the child in christian activity, to enlist his interest in the supreme work of the church, to inform him along this line and through him, reach the ear and heart of some older in the Master's service. In accord with this custom, the children of the Sunday school will have charge of the service on Sunday night at the Christian church. Every one is very cordially invited to be present.

THE PASTOR.

MR. R. H. BRONAUGH, president of the Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association, is in the city to interest the people in the meeting to be held July 27-29. The fair has proved the most interesting and successful in the State and always proves a pleasant occasion.—Lex. Democrat.

THERE will be a strawberry supper at Abraham's School-house in the East End Saturday night, next. Go and have a good time and at the same time help a laudable cause.

Considerable damage was done by a tornado at Coldwater, Kas.

Take Me Back To Old Kentucky.

Fugitive W. S. Taylor is said to have addressed the appending touching political effusion to Gov. Durbin, of Indiana:

Take me back to old Kentucky
Where the crystal waters glist
As they dance along their borders,
Thro' their fragrant beds of mist;
Where the lasses and the horses
Are but terms of grace and speed,
And the whisky and the statesmen
Both are noted for their "bead."

Take me back to old Kentucky,
Where strong waters flow so free,
Where they cool off in the summer
'Neath spreading julp tree;
Where the highballs and the lowballs
Always hit the centre square,
And you never have next morning
Rheumatism in your hair.

Take me back to old Kentucky,
Where the bluegrass decks the hills,
Where they have no use for water
Save for operating mills;
For they scorn it as a beverage
On that dark and bloody ground,
As they claim, e'er since the deluge,
That it tastes of sinners drowned.

Take me back to old Kentucky,
To the State where I was born,
Where the corn is full of kernels
And the colcoels full of corn;
Where to disapprove that beverage
Is to toy with certain death,
And they have a bonded warehouse
Where they barrel up their breath.

Take me back to old Kentucky,
Let me hear the rifles pop;
See the pigs and politicians
With their scute eye deep in slop.
Take me back to her blue mountains
Where they argue points with lead,
But you need not rush the matter,
Take me back when I am dead.

KINGSVILLE.

The Christian church is still without a preacher. Hodges & Campbell continue to do well in the saw mill business.

Mr. Charles Evans and family will move to their home here, early in June.

Mrs. Fannie E. Carey has rented part of Morris Watts house and has moved to it.

Despite the late cold weather there seems to be a very good prospect for fruit in this section.

J. L. Johnson has a large yield of delicious strawberries. Some of them are simply immense in size.

The Maccabees will give a strawberry supper here Saturday, June 11. It will be a lawn fete. The lodge is becoming quite strong.

Mrs. F. M. Howe has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. G. Baker, at Harrison, Tenn. Mrs. Jas. Roy and son, James, Jr., are back from Jellico, Tenn. They will spend the summer here. Miss Otilie Paulkner was here last week.

The Q & C. has let contracts for new bridges and bridge repairs, double tracks, etc., to the amount of about a half million dollars, mostly for improvements between Somerset and Chattanooga.—Somerset Journal.

The Nebraska Indians will come to Danville Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week to cross bats with the Central University base ball team.

Frank Sessler, a rejected author, shot Miss Estelle Roney, at Chicago, and then fatally wounded himself.

KENTUCKY'S ARTIST.

No. 1455 IV A. S. H. R.

This premium saddle and harness stallion will make the present season at Logan Hurst Farm, four miles from Danville and six miles from Stanford. Kentucky's Artist is a beautiful chestnut, 8 years old, with three white feet, 15 3/4 hands high, a perfect model in form, with great style and action.

Kentucky's Artist was sired by Artist Montrose, No. 37, winner of the great sweepstakes prize at the World's Fair, by Artist No. 75, he by King William 62, he by Washington Denmark, 64, by Gaines Denmark, 61, Artist Montrose 1st dam Bailey, by Montrose, 106, tracing to Denmark f. s. and dam by Bald Stocking, 67, by Tom Hat, f. s.

Artist 75, dam Lucy, No. 50, by Brucher's Drennon, f. s. Kentucky's Artist 1st dam Julia Thomas, by Pat Denmark, he by Sumpter Denmark; and dam Lucy Thomas, by Nero, he by Thompson's Morgan; 3rd dam Cooper, by Patrick's Copper Bottom, 4th dam Dovey, by Barnes' Whip, of Howard county, Missouri, by Blackburn's Whip, of Kentucky.

Kentucky's Artist has shown against and defeated all the great stallions in Kentucky and Missouri, among them such horses as the $5,000 Montgomery Chief owned by Ball Bros., the great and noted show horse, Preston, owned by Pat Dolan.

Kentucky's Artist is only 3 years old and is regarded by Kentucky's best judges to be the most perfect gaited saddle stallion in the State. I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite breeders of fine horses to come and see Kentucky's Artist before breeding. I stand him at $20 the season or $25 to insure a living colt. I don't want your money until you have gotten a good one.

PRUITT BROS.,

UNDERTAKING AND FURNITURE DEALERS. LIVERY IN CONNECTION. MORELAND, KY.

PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15 1/2 hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; and dam by a Denmark horse.

Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomery Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1 Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced

2 Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Ware for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old out in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.

3 Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000

4 Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.

5 Because he has won more money in the show ring than any other saddle stallion in Kentucky.

6 I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite those wishing to breed to a fine saddle stallion to see him before breeding. I will stand him at $10 the season or $15 to insure a living colt.
